

How To Study The Bible With Others

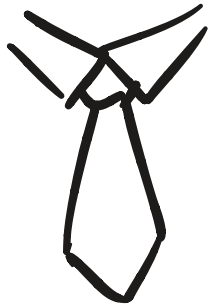

Sept 13th – FaithShare 2025

CONTEXTUAL

too Narrow = Narrow Results

- Learn by teaching
- Learn About God
- Changes us
- Gives Peace
- History
- Increases faith
- Builds Relationship

Types of Study:

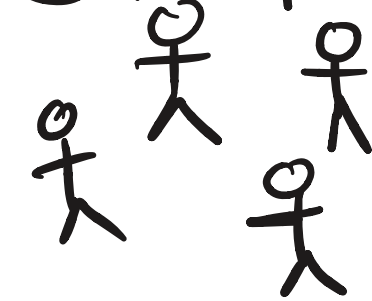

Pastoral

- short
- Reflection
- 1 verse

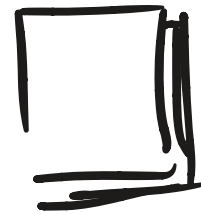

Recurring

GROUP

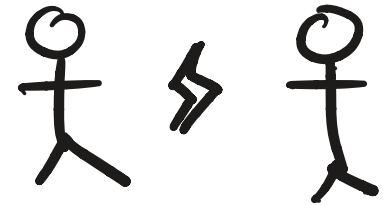

- Book/theme
- Group helps each other

Box Set

- Doctrinal
- thematic
- Expertise

Recurring
1 on 1

- creating connection
- closeness
- Specific Interest

Ingredients to a Bible Study

- Bibles
- Prayer
- Discussion
- Listening

Be
→
Curious

optional
★•Socialization

•food

•buffer time Before

★•Research

- Read ahead
- Develop Q's
- History & Geography

•Follow-up

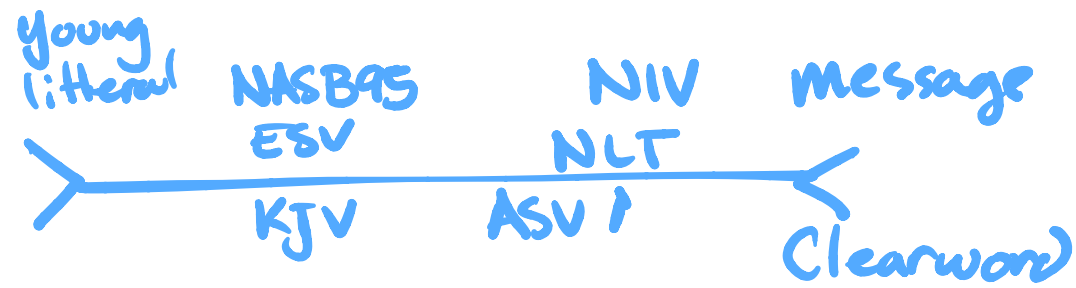

CONTEXTUAL

too Narrow = Narrow Results

- Learn by teaching
- Learn About God
- Changes us
- Gives Peace
- History
- Increases faith
- Builds Relationship

- ①. Pray for Guidance
- ②. Read the text
- ③. Discuss — LISTENING
 - ! Big 3 players
 - Affirm & Confirm
 - Be Quiet.
- ④. Summarize (tell me what I just said)
- ⑤. Look Forward
- ⑥. Pray for Closure

Bibles

- Check the “use-by” date
- Paraphrase vs Translations
- Subject Matter
- Formatting and Bible Orientation

Gospels — John
Genesis — (skip Gen)
Acts & Historical
— Wisdom Lit
Prophetic Books
epistles

How To Answer Questions & Objections

Sept 20th – FaithShare 2025